

Seafood New Zealand Index 2008

Compiled by the New Zealand Seafood Industry Council
Information Centre

This list includes all issues for Seafood NZ magazine for the above year. There were 11 issues published in 2008 beginning with February (Vol. 16, No. 1) and ending in December (Vol. 16, No. 11).

Articles may be requested at no charge by levy-payers and $15 per item for non levy-payers. To order any of these articles please contact the Information Centre: ph. (04) 385 4005, fax (04) 385 2727, or email info@seafood.co.nz

Seafood New Zealand: February 2008 (vol. 16 no. 1)

Down the hatch : A saucy dish

Northcott, Rose

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 1 (February 2008), p.30-31

Bill Floyd is a man with a mission - to tell the world about New Zealand's fantastic food and wines. In this item he presents a new approach to Greenshell mussels with a recipe for mussels with Blackcurrent salsa.

Drop a line : southern shellfish: Rock lobster monitoring in Otago

Street, Bob

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 1 (February 2008), p.20-21

Discusses a new rock lobster larval monitoring program being undertaken by Southern Shellfish.

From forest to fish : Jeremy Fleming's first four months at AFL (Aotearoa Fisheries Limited)

Northcott, Ros

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 1 (February 2008), p.20-21

Interviews Jeremy Fleming, CEO of Aotearoa Fisheries Limited (AFL).

FV Amaltal Explorer : a new breed of trawler 20 years on

Carey, Chris

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 1 (February 2008), p. 38-40

Profiles the FV Amaltal Explorer, the first and foremost deep-sea trawler built to catch fish in New Zealand waters.

Good breeding shows itself : Improving aquaculture production through selective breeding

Symonds, Jane

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 1 (February 2008), p.28-29

Discusses why good breeding is important to aquaculture.

It's all about fish : Kiwi catch crucial to Sydney Fish Market

Haworth, Jenny

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 1 (February 2008), p.16-18

Reports on Sydney's bustling, thriving Fish Market, the city's major auction floor for fish from all over Australia and New Zealand.

Just the Job back for salmon

Sturm, Debra

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 1 (February 2008), p. 26-27

Looks at the filming of the television Just the Job as it follows a potential recruit to aquaculture at the King Salmon seafarm near Picton.

New Zealand's seabirds in focus

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 1 (February 2008), p.43

Details the Southern Seabird Solutions Trust's seabird photographic competition.

Nuts 'n' bolts : a glance astern, a look ahead

Findley, Tim

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 1 (February 2008), p.36-37

Ponders what the fishing industry could achieve with military size budgets.

Reducing power bills for land-based seafood processing

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 1 (February 2008), p.32

Increasing the energy efficiency of your business can save you money - and there might be help to get you started.

Salt of the Ocean : Brian Kenton: Industry legend

Haworth, Jenny

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 1 (February 2008), p.34-35

Profiles Brian Kenton who has spent decades as an advocate of New Zealand fishers and fishing.

The search for new markets : Aquaculture New Zealand leads market development for the sector

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 1 (February 2008), p.12-15

Outlines the New Zealand Aquaculture Strategy, released in July 2007, and the industry's 10-point plan for development in the next 20 years.

Small islands, big business : Chatham Island's paua in focus

Gundry, Sheridan

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 1 (February 2008), p. 22-23

Paua is important to the Chatham Islands' industry and economy. The industry has begun using data loggers to ensure the fishery is being well managed and harvesting is sustainable.

Tho' nature, red in tooth and claw...

O'Neill, Peter

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 1 (February 2008), p. 24-25

Argues that our food is now sanitised and the fishing industry should educate the consumer on the reality of the process of getting with the product from "the water to the fork".

To infinity.... and beyond

Vitasovich, Peter

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 1 (February 2008), p. 11

Discusses the role of Aquaculture New Zealand and the issues facing the industry as a whole.

Uruguay tackles seabird by-catch

Biswell, Shelly

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 1 (February 2008), p. 42

New Zealand fishers are not alone in seeking a solution to the problem of seabird bycatch. Uruguay has taken a regional leadership role in this issue.

Seafood New Zealand: March 2008 (vol. 16 no. 2)

Call for co-operation

Choat, Chris

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 2 (March 2008), p. 22-23

New Zealand's pristine marine environment is a major selling point on the global market and Aquaculture New Zealand would like it to remain that way.

Down on the farm : King Salmon in partnership with Te Atiawa

Wilson, Sophie

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 2 (March 2008), p. 28-30

Profile of Clay Point sea farm - a partnership venture between New Zealand King Salmon and Te Atiawa.

Drop a line : Can't see the wood for the trees

Claudatos, Mike

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 2 (March 2008), p. 52

Provides further commentary on a recent Seafood NZ article relating to "bureaucracy gone mad" and its impact on the fishing industry in New Zealand.

Fuel : the biological alternative

Findley, Tim

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 2 (March 2008), p. 40-41

A lighthearted look at the potential of biofuels in the fishing industry.

A healthy approach

Bezzant, Niki

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 2 (March 2008), p. 42-43

Provides a recipe for Healthy Green fish curry.

MAFBNZ science : working for industry

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 2 (March 2008), p. 12-13

Looks at the role of MAF Biosecurity NZ's Investigation and Diagnostic Centre at Wallaceville and its work in monitoring the spread of potential marine pests and aquatic animal diseases.

Marine biosecurity surveillance

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 2 (March 2008), p. 14-15
Profiles New Zealand's marine biosecurity surveillance groups.

The perpetual traveller : how a globetrotting marine invader gets around

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 2 (March 2008), p. 18-20
The clubbed tunicate, Styela clava, highlights the ease with which unwanted marine organisms can be introduced and spread around New Zealand, putting our seafood industries at risk. Preventing its spread elsewhere requires effort from everyone.

Phytoplankton : the grass of the sea

Street, Bob
Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 2 (March 2008), p. 38-39
Southern Shellfish is working in conjunction with local fishing industries to research the flatfish fishery and factors which influence abundance, primarily the role of phytoplankton in the food chain.

The play's the thing : paua poaching comes to the theatre

Johnson, Derek
Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 2 (March 2008), p. 36-37
A recent play performed in Wellington theatre examined the serious issue of paua poaching.

Political Q & A : the parties speak

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 2 (March 2008), p. 32-33
Presents responses from representatives of the major political parties to a question put to them by Seafood New Zealand.

There may be trouble ahead...

Stanley, Storm
Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 2 (March 2008), p. 11
Discusses the potential impact of the Abalone Viral Ganglioneuritis (AVG) disease and biosecurity breaches.

Snapshot of a story : new book celebrates 50 years of Federation history

Haworth, Jenny
Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 2 (March 2008), p. 34-35
Profiles a soon to be published book on the history of the New Zealand Federation of Commercial Fishermen.

Water colours

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 2 (March 2008), p. 26-27
Ministry of Fisheries photo competition winners are announced and winning photographs displayed.

Wrap and roll : a novel approach to a serious problem

Wilson, Sophie
Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 2 (March 2008), p. 16-17
Plastic wrap and rolls of tape have proved unlikely weapons in the battle against an invasive sea squirt species in the Marlborough Sounds. Now MAF is seeking public help in the battle.

Seafood New Zealand: April 2008 (vol. 16 no. 3)

Auckland International Boat show 2008

Findley, Tim

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 3 (April 2008), p.18-19

A couple of niche pleasure craft caught the author's eye when he visited the 10th anniversary Auckland International Boat show.

Behind the picture : the plight of the inshore trawlerman

Langlands, Peter

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 3 (April 2008), p.32-33

Presents the story of Archie Laird, a Lyttleton based fisherman who was the subject of a category winning photograph in the Ministry of Fisheries' recent photo competition.

Belitronic BJ5000

Gorman, Terry

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 3 (April 2008), p.21

Makes a case for using the Swedish-made Belitronic electronic fish jigging system.

Fishermen for fishermen

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 3 (April 2008), p.13

Canadian crab fishermen will discuss their approach to fishery at the 2008 Seafood Industry Conference.

Gourmet paua : the McPherson method

McPherson, Tania

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 3 (April 2008), p.26-27

Tania McPherson shares her recipe for preparing paua.

Guest editorial : celebrating achievement and protecting identity

Sykes, Daryl

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 3 (April 2008), p.9

Considers the future of the New Zealand Federation of Commercial Fisherman on the eve of its 50th anniversary.

Make mine mussels

Wilson, Sophie

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 3 (April 2008), p.24

Looks at the Havelock Mussel Festival.

Managing the fishery : rock lobster leads the way

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 3 (April 2008), p.10-11

Looks at the rock lobster industry's voluntary commercial catch reduction and profiles other intended adjustments to commercial catches.

Maritime NZ programme to promote safe ships

Lang, Julia

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 3 (April 2008), p.30-31

Reports on Maritime New Zealand's plans to improve the structure and delivery of its Safe Ship management (SSM) system.

New Zealand Seafood Industry Conference 2008 preview

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 3 (April 2008), p.22-23

Previews the New Zealand Seafood Industry's 2008 Conference. Profiles Keynote speakers Wayne Helgason, Roger Edwards, Craig Mundy, Stephen Mayfield and Malcolm Haddon.

People on the move : Rolly Raureti

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 3 (April 2008), p.7

Profiles Rolly Raureti upon his appointment to the position of General Manager of the Seafood Industry Training Organisation (SITO).

Political Q&A : the parties speak

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 3 (April 2008), p.34-35

Second in a series presenting responses from representatives of the major political parties to a question put to them by Seafood New Zealand.

The Pox : how to stop worrying and deal with osmosis

Findley, Tim

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 3 (April 2008), p.38-40

Looks at how to deal with 'pox' or osmosis on an immersed fibre glass hull.

QMS : another pathway needed

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 3 (April 2008), p.14-16

Asks whether, two decades on, it is now time to re-examine the Quota Management System.

Seafood in Beantown

Leslie, Stfan

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 3 (April 2008), p.28-29

Notes from the 2008 International Boston Seafood Show.

The Seafood Industry Council policy updates

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 3 (Apr 2008), p.6

Discusses new policy updates from the NZ Seafood Industry Council. Includes new information on Hector's and Maui dolphins, cost recovery rules review and implications of High Court ORH 1 judgement.

Southern flatfish : assessing an important fishery

Street, Bob

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 3 (April 2008), p.36-37

Reports on a new plan to research sustainability of flatfish, a species caught by inshore trawlers of the South Island.

Through a judge's eyes

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 3 (April 2008), p.52

Interviews photographer Kim Westerkov, one of the judges for the 2008 Southern Seabird Solutions Trust's seabird photograph competition.

Seafood New Zealand: May 2008 (vol. 16 no. 4)

Bluff oysters : one of the world's finest shellfish

Street, Bob

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 4 (May 2008), p.56-57

Gives an update on oyster enhancement work down south.

A brief history of seals ... or ... keeping the water out

Findley, Tim

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 4 (May 2008), p.66-68

Discusses the pros and cons of oil and neoprene sealing systems.

Catching them young : the Adopt a Boat scheme in New Zealand

Carey, Chris

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 4 (May 2008), p.24-25

A recent initiative in New Zealand sees schools adopting a boat and the pupils learning about the complexities of managing marine resources, marine ecology and life as a fisherman.

Codex Committee on Fish and Fishery Products meeting : February 18-23, 2008, Trondheim, Norway

Webb, Cathy

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 4 (May 2008), p.70-71

Reports on the 29th session of the Codex Committee on Fish and Fishery Products in held in Norway in February.

Counting the beasts : rock lobster research programmes

Sykes, Daryl

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 4 (May 2008), p.12-14

Presents information about the rock lobster stock assessment programme.

Drop a line : way back when ...

Collins, Ted

Seafood New Zealand. Vol 16, no. 4 (May 2008), p.80

Discusses how the New Zealand Federation of Commercial Fishermen's annual conference has changed over the years.

Farming from your desktop : learning on-line for aquaculture

Sturm, Debra

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 4 (May 2008), p.72-73

Aquaculture companies can face significant challenges in the adding to the skills of their employees - from finding training that is workplace relevant to facing the costs of sending employees off-site for course work. This article investigates an exciting new e-learning initiative that is a training problem-solver in more ways than one.

Fishermen to the rescue : fishing and saving lives in the Cook Strait

Johnson, Derek

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 4 (May 2008), p.18-20

Profiles fisherman Brett Churcher, awarded and International Maritime Organisation International Bravery Award for his actions in rescuing a father and daughter following the sinking of their boat off the Wairarapa coast in 2007.

Gain from pain?

Bagrie, Cameron

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 4 (May 2008), p.34

Discusses the current financial situation.

Guest editorial : Doug Saunders-Loder

Saunders-Loder, Doug

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 4 (May 2008), p.11

The President of the NZ Federation of Commercial Fishermen looks at the role of the Federation as it celebrates its 50th anniversary.

Political Q & A : the parties speak

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 4 (May 2008), p.60-61

Provides representatives from all the major political parties an opportunity to respond to fishing industry related questions.

Skills training and education : the key to seafood export success

Hapi, Robin

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 4 (May 2008), p.22-23

Considers the ongoing need for skills and education in the seafood industry if New Zealand is to benefit from the recent free trade agreement with China.

Solutions across the ditch : by-catch goes international

Biswell, Shelly Farr

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 4 (May 2008), p.62-63

South-east Australian fishermen are giving by-catch issues a fresh look.

South bound : Tangaroa returns from epic voyage of scientific discovery

Proffitt, Fiona

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 4 (May 2008), p.16-17

Photo essay covering research vessel Tangaroa's recent survey of the Ross Sea biodiversity.

Throw another fish on the barbie

van Rijk, Raymond

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 4 (May 2008), p.58-59

Discusses how to get the best from fish on the barbecue. Includes recipe for grilled snapper fillets with chermoula on couscous.

Seafood New Zealand: June 2008 (vol. 16 no. 5)

Drop a line

Taylor, Nadine

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 5 (Jun 2008), p.52

Text of a plenary speech from the Seafood Industry conference offering thoughts on inshore fisheries and allocations and the image of fishing.

Fishing the dream : the Davey brothers

Morris, Gary

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 5 (Jun 2008), p.22-24

Profiles a pair of Bay of Islands brothers who are following their childhood dream to become commercial fishermen.

Food safety : whose responsibility is it anyway?

McCoubrey, Dorothy-Jean

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 5 (Jun 2008), p.18-20

Reflects on the questions "what is food safety" and "whose responsibility is it?"

Four in one : New Zealand Seafood Industry Conference 2008

Johnson, Derek

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 5 (Jun 2008), p.36-38

Provides a summary of the three days of the 2008 NZ Seafood Industry Conference.

Getting saucy : celebrity chefs reveal signature recipes

Floyd, Bill

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 5 (Jun 2008), p.28-30

Reports on the Havelock Mussel Festival's culinary workshop.

Guest editorial : safety first

Symmans, Owen

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 5 (Jun 2008), p.11

Argues the importance for the seafood industry of engaging with the New Zealand Food Safety Authority (NZFSA).

Improving the stock : paua stock enhancement trials in South Otago

Street, Bob

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 5 (Jun 2008), p.34-35

Provides an update on Southern Shellfish's programme to establish cost effective ways of enhancing paua stocks in Otago and Southland.

The lure of snake oil : diesel additives under the microscope

Johnson, Derek

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 5 (Jun 2008), p.26-27

Summarises the findings of a new British study that has examined the efficacy - or otherwise - of diesel fuel additives for fishing vessels.

Maritime New Zealand : new rules exemptions process

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 5 (Jun 2008), p.42

A new and improved system for processing applications for exemptions from maritime and marine protection rules will mean a more consistent and robust level of service being provided to applicants, says Maritime New Zealand.

Paua smuggling ring busted

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 5 (Jun 2008), p.2

Provides overview of Operation PAID - a 12-month covert operation targetting paua poaching, sale and distribution of paua from the Wellington coastline.

Political Q & A : the parties speak

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 5 (Jun 2008), p.32-33

Provides representatives of all the major political parties with an opportunity to respond to a fishing industry-related question.

Sanford Limited : stepping up to the “red line”

Sturm, Debra

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 5 (Jun 2008), p.16-17

Goes behind the scenes to check out Sanford's approach to food safety.

Toxin research good news for crab meat consumers

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 5 (Jun 2008), p.21

“Reveals the answer to the question “If crabs eat a toxic shellfish, do they themselves become toxic?”

Trying to be flexible : rules in the real world

Findley, Tim

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 5 (Jun 2008), p.40-41

Ponders the need for rules and regulations.

Seafood New Zealand: July 2008 (vol. 16 no. 6)

Aquaculture in the classroom

Wilson, Sophie

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 6 (Jul 2008), p.16-17

Educators and aquaculture industry members are applauding a new government initiative that allows teachers to bring aquaculture into the classroom in the form of the Aquaculture in Action educational resource.

Auction action : fishers dig deep for fishers

Haworth, Jenny

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 6 (Jul 2008), p.34-35

Looks at the 2008 Shipwreck Auction, run by the Federation of Commercial Fishermen as part of the Seafood Industry Conference.

Canal zone : salmon farming around Twizel

Carey, Chris

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 6 (Jul 2008), p.30-33

Profiles three salmon farms in the McKenzie Basin region - Mt Cook Salmon, High Country Salmon and Benmore Salmon.

Cats, pods and dentists : an engine mounting workshop

Findley, Tim

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 6 (Jul 2008), p.36-38

The author finds that changing propulsion units proves to be trickier than expected.

Classroom consultation : universities add value to New Zealand seafood

Sturm, Debra

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 6 (Jul 2008), p.40-41

Looks at how a new seafood sector course taught jointly at Canterbury and Otago Universities from 2008 takes seafood industry training and knowledge development to a whole new level.

Conference call

Burrell, Mike

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 6 (Jul. 2008), p.11

Editorial profiling the inaugural New Zealand Aquaculture conference.

Dolphin decision : New Zealand's fishers respond

Johnson, Derek

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 6 (Jul 2008), p.12-14

Fishers all around New Zealand will be affected by the Ministry of Fisheries's Hector's and Maui's dolphin threat management plan.

Drop a line : viable options for vessels

Wilson, Godfrey

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 6 (Jul 2008), p.62

Offers thoughts on the fishing vessel market.

Food game a sure bet for the times

Tacon, Terry

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 6 (Jul 2008), p.6

Summarises a presentation given by Graham Stuart, chief executive of Sealord, to a farming seminar.

Food on board

Visser, Chantell

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 6 (Jul 2008), p.26-27

Mike Jules, chef and medic on board Sealord's trawler, Thomas Harrison, shares his recipe for lemon and tomato fish.

Honours all round : recognition for Jim Jessep

Wilson, Sophie

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 6 (Jul 2008), p.20

Interview with mussel farming pioneer, Jim Jessep, about his New Zealand Order of Merit award.

One day in the life of FV Ivan Golubets

Carey, Chris

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 6 (Jul 2008), p.22-24

Reports on a few days spent aboard a Russian fishing vessel.

Seabird smart : new resources released

Biswell, Shelly

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 6 (Jul 2008), p.28

The Southern Seabird Solutions Trust has teamed up with the Seafood Industry Training Organisation (SITO) and Ministry of Fisheries to develop training resources for SITO's unit standard covering seabird and fisheries interaction. There are also te reo Maori versions of the Trust's fact sheet for children.

Update : shellfish in the South

Street, Bob

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 6 (Jul 2008), p.42

Presents an update on the assessments of shellfish stocks and ways to improve stock.

Warm front : the effect of La Nina on mussel farming

Wilson, Sophie

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 6 (Jul 2008), p.18-19

Looks at how industry is using science to mitigate the impact of low winter rainfall and a La Nina summer which has led to poor mussel yields in the Marlborough Sounds.

Seafood New Zealand: August 2008 (vol. 16 no. 7)

Champion chowder

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 7 (Aug 2008), p.28-29

The result is in: New Zealand's best mussel chowder has been declared, and the recipe is provided.

Drop a line : where does the money go?

Campbell, Mitch

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16 no. 7 (Aug 2008), p.52

Opinion piece discussing current government policy in New Zealand particularly that of the Ministry of Fisheries.

Fashion for fishers : Nelson's Fishkiller clothing

Carey, Chris

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16 no. 7 (Aug 2008), p.25-26

Former trawler crew member Dawn McFarlane now designs clothing range for fishers.

Fishing threatened by development

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 7 (Aug 2008), p.4

The Auckland Fish Market, plus a range of established marine and fishing businesses, are at risk due to planned development of the surrounding waterfront area according to market owners, Sanford.

Guest editorial : good news story

Dawson, Pete

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16 no. 7 (Aug 2008), p.11

Discusses the positive achievements of the FishSAFE project.

Guilty : until you prove yourself innocent

Regan, Richard

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 7 (Aug 2008), p.16-18

Discusses some of the more demanding aspects of the inshore fishing situation and highlights a possible way forward for inshore commercial fishers committed to their profession.

Hikurangi history : remembering Happy Yovich

Findley, Tim

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16 no. 7 (Aug 2008), p.36-38

Profiles Northland fishing personality the late Happy Yovich.

Independent research : stock assessment in the Gulf of Oman

Carey, Chris

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16 no. 7 (Aug 2008), p.20-22

Reports on a fisheries' survey undertaken in the Gulf of Oman recently.

Making a difference : FishSAFE after two years

Fahy, Marguerite

Seafood New Zealand. Vol 16, no. 7 (Aug 2008), p.12-14

The newly-introduced FishSAFE is seen as an industry success story.

Marine science conference in Christchurch

Lydon, Greg

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 7 (Aug 2008), p.3

Provides overview of the joint NZ Marine Sciences Society (NZMSS) and Australian Marine Sciences Association held recently in Christchurch.

Obituary : Frank Stark, January 27, 1938 to May 21, 2008

Carey, Chris

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 7 (Aug 2008), p.7

Obituary for Frank Stark, an important figure in the Lyttelton marine scene, who has died after a brief illness aged 70.

Sail ho! : wind power revisited

Findley, Tim

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 7 (Aug 2008), p.40-42

Gives an overview of the historical use of wind to power sailing and fishing vessels and considers its potential in the future of the fishing industry.

Seafood Industry Council policy updates

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 7 (Aug 2008), p.10

Provides updates to council policy on new environmental regulation in the EEZ; Marine mammal sanctuaries for Hector's and Maui's dolphins; Amendments to section 13 of the Fisheries Act and Annual fisheries consultations.

Tuna tag team : high tech approach nets results

Harley, Shelton ; Holdsworth, John

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16 no. 7 (Aug 2008), p.30-33

Reports the results of a joint fishing industry and Ministry of Fisheries project aimed at better understanding the movements of the southern bluefin tuna and the Pacific bluefin tuna.

Seafood New Zealand: September 2008 (vol. 16 no. 8)

All about trawl doors

Carey, Chris

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no 8 (Sep 2008), p.30-32

Author shares his thoughts on trawl doors.

Celebrating diversity

Langlands, Peter

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 8 (Sep 2008), p.36-37

Author shares a recipe for cooking blue warehou.

Fisherman's winning shot

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 8 (Sep 2008), 28-29

Presents the winners of the Southern Seabird Solution Trust's 2008 photo competition.

Get in there FRST : help with R&D

Edmond, Katherine

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 8 (Sep 2008), p.24-26

Looks at the organisations that provide research funding for those wanting to invest in developing the seafood industry.

GPS implicated in successful prosecution

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 8 (Sep 2008), p.4

Warns of the dangers of relying on GPS and failing to keep a proper look out following prosecution of two Auckland boaties who collided with a lit beacon.

Guest editorial : partnering leads to success

Buddle, Chris

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 8 (Sep 2008), p.19

Discusses long term investment in projects between Crop and Food Research and the fishing industry.

Health from the sea

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 8 (Sep 2008), p.23

Profiles Crop and Food Research's project to develop new health-promoting marine oils and protein ingredients.

Higher value from seafoods

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 8 (Sep 2008), p.22

Profiles the Crop and Food research scientific team working with the seafood industry on the project "Higher value seafoods".

Letter to the editor : Jim Anderton

Anderton, Jim

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 8 (Sep 2008), p.16-17

Letter from the Minister of Fisheries responding to an article in Seafood New Zealand vol. 16, no. 7. Explains Ministry position on allocation of fishing resources.

Mandatory form to make incidental catch reporting more realistic and uniform

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 8 (Sep 2008), p.14

Explains a mandatory reporting form fisher will be obliged to complete from 1 October 2008. The new system is designed to collect more accurate information on the incidental catches of seabirds, marine mammals, marine reptiles, protected fish species and corals, sponges and bryozoans.

More from Omega-3

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 8 (Sep 2008), p.21

Profiles the work being undertaken by Crop and Food Research scientist, Dr Matt Miller, into omega-3 products.

My first eight months and Vision 2030

McNee, Wayne

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 8 (Sep 2008), p.52

Item by the Chief Executive, Ministry of Fisheries, summarising his first eight months in the role and discussing future directions for the Ministry.

Pushing the boat out : picking the right propeller

Findley, Tim

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 8 (Sep 2008), p.38-42

Presents the first in a series of articles endeavouring to sell a sure-fire fuel-saver - propeller selection and maintenance.

Raymarine's new autopilot

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 8 (Sep 2008), p.11

Profiles the new SmartPilot X Series (SPX) Autopilot Range.

Seafood Industry Council policy updates

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 8 (Sep 2008), p.18

Discusses updates to the Seafood Industry Council policies on seabird mitigation for trawlers; update to Section 13 of the Fisheries Act and proposed new aquaculture legislation.

Seafood sector attracts R&D dollars

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 8 (Sep 2008), p.20-21

Crop and Food Research has attracted new research funding for the seafood sector.

Trawling for savings

Carey, Chris

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 8 (Sep 2008), p.34-35

Discusses the cost effectiveness of downsizing trawling gear.

World maritime day celebrates shipping

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 8 (Sep 2008), p.12

World Maritime Day 2008 will celebrate 60 years in the service of shipping.

Seafood New Zealand: October 2008 (vol. 16 no. 9)

A family affair : 50 years of Stark Bros Ltd.

Johnson, Derek

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 9 (Oct 2008), p. 14-19

Reviews the history of Stark Brothers Ltd, the Lyttelton boat builders and marine engineers, as it reaches its fiftieth anniversary. Also profiles the businesses recent vessels, like the Jubilee, and the role of biodiesel.

Big eye wide open

Scott, Geoff

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 9 (Oct 2008), p. 34-35

Profiles chef Geoff Scott and provides a recipe for Big eye tuna carpaccio.

Drop a line : cultural learning from scientific research

Gibson, John

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 9 (Oct 2008), 60

Discusses the other, cultural lessons, that can be learned from scientific research, and how those lessons benefit the science.

The hunt is on : tuna season 2008-009

Haworth, Jenny

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 9 (Oct 2009), p. 22

Talks to fishermen about the 2007-08 tuna season and their expectations of the forthcoming season.

Nelson blessing of the fleet

Smith, Mike

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 9 (Oct 2008), p. 11

Summarises the eighth annual Blessing of the Fishing Fleet held in Nelson on August 2 2008.

New boats in the 21st century?

Stark, Andrew

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 9 (Oct 2008), p. 13

Guest editorial discussing the future of fishing vessels and the need to keep New Zealand's fishing fleet modernised and well maintained.

New frontiers : the future of mussel breeding

McKenzie, Lauren

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 9 (Oct 2008), p. 32-33

Profiles the Cawthron Institute's research programme which will ultimately see mussels farmed domestically in New Zealand, further boosting the value of this export industry.

New maritime document vetting regime

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 9 (Oct 2008), p. 12

Advises that under the Maritime Transport Act, from 1 September 2008 Maritime New Zealand stepped up its vetting process of ensuring maritime documents are issued to suitable persons.

New Zealand Aquaculture Conference 2008

Johnson, Derek

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 9 (Oct 2008), p. 20

Reports on the inaugural New Zealand Aquaculture Conference.

Ongoing journey : customary trainees graduate

Gundry, Sheridan

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 9 (Oct 2008), p. 28-31

Reports on the first graduation ceremony for the new SITO-developed customary fishing management certificate course and discusses the role of kaitiakitanga.

Pushing the boat out 2 : power to the propeller

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 9 (Oct 2008), p. 36-40

Part 2 in a series on the value of propellers.

Seafood ITO website a winner

Sturm, Debra

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 9 (Oct 2008), p. 10

The Seafood ITO's revamped website has won the Plain English Best Website Private Category award.

Southern seabird solutions : where to from here?

Biswell, Shelly Farr

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 9 (Oct 2008), p. 26-27

Previews a workshop intended to help chart the Southern Seabird Solutions Trust's future directions.

Seafood New Zealand: November 2008 (vol. 16 no. 10)*Anti-fouling & cleaning : it's vital in protecting the environment, too!

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 10 (Nov 2008), p. 5

Explains the role an effective anti-fouling system plays in protecting the environment.

Doco focuses on fish

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 10 (Nov 2008), p. 12

Profiles American student Steve Holleran who has been in New Zealand as part of the Thomas J

Watson Fellowship, making a documentary about sustainability in fisheries.

Drop a line : reflecting on good times

Guard, Darren

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 10 (Nov 2008), p. 52

Highlights the highs and lows of the fishing industry as experienced by the author.

Dyneema's day in the sun : saving money with the right trawl

Carey, Chris

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 10 (Nov 2008), p. 24

Profiles Dyneema netting and how a change of trawl net can cut fuel bills. Talks to Andrew Hope of Motueka Nets.

Finding the fish : RV Tangaroa's new multi-frequency echosounders

MacAulay, Gavin

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 10 (Nov 2008), p. 34-38

Describes how new multi-frequency echosounders fitted to NIWA's research vessel Tangaroa reveal much more information about what is under the sea.

Key to safety is working together

Forsyth, Sharyn

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 10 (Nov 2008), p.19

Editorial by the newly appointed General Manager Maritime Safety Systems, Maritime New Zealand, discussing the role of MNZ in ensuring safety in the maritime industry.

Lessons learned the hard way

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 10 (Nov 2008), p. 22-23

An accident on board his fishing vessel that left a young crewman in a coma forced skipper Chris White to take a hard look at the hazards of his operation. He says lessons learnt in the 2004 accident should be implemented on every boat.

Made in Japan : career enhancement the TOKM way

Johnson, Derek

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 10 (Nov 2008), p. 32-33

Presents an interview with Manihera Forbes, the latest recipient of a place on the Global Fisheries Programme, a joint Te Ohu Kaimonana - Nissui scholarship, that will allow him to spend a year in Japan learning and working with Nissui.

Maritime New Zealand : seabird mitigation measures and vessel stability

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 10 (Nov 2008), p. 20-21

In an attempt to mitigate seabird bycatch it has been proposed that fishing vessels undertake measures relating to offal retention. This article discusses concerns that have been raised about vessel stability and ultimate safety as a result of these suggested changes.

Mike Claudatos Evangelos Claudatos : November 5, 1955 to August 31, 2008

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 10 (Nov 2008), p. 14

An obituary paying tribute to the late Mike Claudatos who was a well known fishing industry stalwart.

New marine safety charges and fees introduced

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 10 (Nov 2008), p.23

Discusses changes to the the Marine Safety Charge (MSC), ship registration, and seafarer licensing rates.

Notus Trawlmaster net monitoring system

Carey, Chris

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 10 (Nov 2008), p. 10

Profiles the Notus Trawlmaster net monitoring system, a Canadian design sold and serviced in New Zealand by Electronic Navigation Ltd, Nelson.

Pushing the boat out 3 : coffee & liqueurs

Findley, Tim

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 10 (Nov 2008), p. 40-42

Continues a series on propulsion systems and propellers. Box provides photos showing "birth of a propeller".

Seafood Industry Council policy updates

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 10 (Nov 2008), p. 18

Reports on updated policy relating to new fisheries and aquaculture laws that have been passed recently and the Seafood Industry Council's support for mandatory reporting for recreational charter vessels.

Snap 'em up : Christmas shopping for fishers just got a whole lot easier

Johnson, Derek

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 10 (Nov 2008), p. 26

Reviews two newly released book titles about snapper - Snapper : New Zealand's great fish by Sam Mossman and The Snapper Cookbook : prepare, cook and enjoy by Adam Clancey.

Snapper decision

Johnson, Derek

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 10 (Nov 2008), p. 28-29

Presents an interview with Adam Clancey about fishing, cooking, books and TV and his tongue-in-cheek recipe for "Auckland" whitebait fritters.

Swinging 60 : old man snapper caught

Walsh, Cameron

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 10 (Nov 2008), p. 30-31

Discusses what has been learned from the catching of a snapper of around 60 years of age.

Seafood New Zealand: December 2008 / January 2009 (vol. 16 no. 11)

Back to the engine room : smoking, and what it signifies

Findley, Tim

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 11 (Dec 2008 / Jan 2009), p.38-42

All engines generate smoke, the colour of some of it can be cause for concern. This article looks at what some of the underlying problems may be.

Drop a line : an open letter to the new Ministers of the Fisheries, Conservation and the Environment

Lawson, Malcolm

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 11 (Dec 2008 / Jan 2009), p. 52

Offers opinion on the issues the new government Ministers should be paying attention to.

Getting home safe : new training success for large vessels

Sturm, Debra

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 11 (Dec 2008 / Jan 2009), p. 14-17

Profiles the successful FishSAFE inshore training framework that is now being used as the basis for new training programmes now being offered for the crews of large commercial fishing vessels.

Greetings from the new Minister

Heatley, Phil

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 11 (Dec 2008 / Jan 2009), p. 12

Guest editorial from the newly appointed Minister of Fisheries.

History at sea : The perfect book for the fisher in your family?

Johnson, Derek

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 11 (Dec 2008 / Jan 2009), p. 34

Reviews the "Winds of change : the story of the New Zealand Federation of Commercial Fishermen" by Jenny Haworth.

North to south : Thyboron doors in New Zealand

Carey, Chris

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 11 (Dec 2008 / Jan 2009), p.36-37

Profiles a range of Danish trawl doors.

Raymond Mitchell : fishing in the blood

Howarth, Jenny

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 11 (Dec 2008 / Jan 2009), p. 30-33

Profiles Raymond Mitchell, a third generation fisherman from Timaru.

Seafood packaging : increasing demand for safety and convenience

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 11 (Dec 2008 / Jan 2009), p. 18-20

Provides an overview of Cryovac's range of specialist packaging for the delivery of fresh, safe seafood.

Simply super salmon

Thomson, Sarah

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 11 (Dec 2008 / Jan 2009), p. 28-29

The CEO of Diabetes New Zealand discusses the importance of healthy eating and the role of seafood in a balanced diet. Recipe for baked salmon follows.

Southern Seabird Solutions trust : what remains to be done

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 11 (Dec 2008 / Jan 2009), p.10

Presents an overview of the recent Southern Seabird Solutions Trust review workshop. The purpose of the workshop was to review how the Trust could best add value in reducing seabird by-catch in New Zealand and the wider southern hemisphere.

Top of the South : what's happening with tourism and seafood

Sassenberg, Ulrike ; Jodice, Laura ; Hull, John

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 11 (Dec 2008 / Jan 2009), p.24-27

Looks at how the Nelson-Marlborough region is promoting locally produced seafood as part of its wine and food tourism.

WMDs : weapons of mass de-hooking : DOC helps fishers to be turtle safe

Pierre, Johanna

Seafood New Zealand. Vol. 16, no. 11 (Dec 2008 / Jan 2009), p.22-23

Reports on the Department of Conservation's plans to offer dehooking equipment to fishers to aid in the safe release of turtles and other bycatch.